Email Writing Tips That Get Results

Small improvements in your emails can significantly increase response rates. Keep these principles top of mind.

→ ✓ Personalize Every Email

Use the prospect's name, company, and a specific detail. Generic emails get deleted.

→ ✓ Keep It Short

Aim for 5–8 sentences max. Busy decision-makers don't read essays.

→ ✓ Focus on Value, Not Features

Lead with what the prospect gains, not what your product does.

→ ✓ One Clear CTA Per Email

Ask for one thing only – a reply, a call, a click. Multiple CTAs reduce conversion.

→ ✓ Proofread Before Sending

Typos kill credibility instantly. Read it aloud before you hit send.

→ ✓ Follow Up Consistently

80% of deals require 5+ touchpoints. Build a systematic follow-up cadence.
